

God's Gift of Life

A Liturgical Drama of Praise for Pentecost

Written by John van de Laar © 2007 Sacredise

Child 1: God made us . . .
Child 2: With different colour eyes, and skin and hair . . .
Child 3: With different gifts and talents . . .
Child 4: But, with the same life in each of us.

People: We praise You, Lord, for giving us Your life.

Child 1: When God made the first people, they were formed out of mud
Child 2: But, God breathed into them the breath of life
Child 3: And they came alive – living, breathing, singing, playing, working, loving beings...
Child 4: This same breath God has breathed into each of us.

People: We praise You, Lord, for giving us Your breath of life

Child 1: Even when life knocks the wind out of us . . .
Child 2: When we become dry and empty . . .
Child 3: When we feel like there is no life left in us . . .
Child 4: God sends us His Spirit – the Living Water – to give us new strength.

People: We praise You, Lord, for giving us Your Living water

Children: So, let's breathe deep the breath of God. Let's drink deep the Living Water.

People: Thank You, Lord, for Your gift of Yourself. We praise You for being the loving, life-giving God that You are. Amen.
